We will be having our annual "Easter Party" in October. This is the first year I'm doing it as the pastor. I'll be leading a team of ushers. I'm so looking forward to it, and I know you all will be too. So keep your eye on the blog from now till the party. Maybe you can spot some Easter Eggs hidden in it or some Easter Photos. [audio: For the past several weeks, we've had a new song we sing on Easter. It's called "New Easter Song". We're looking forward to singing it on Easter this year, but I've been looking forward to singing it every Easter since I learned it. The words are so good, I feel like I should have been singing them all along. "New Easter Song" New spring has come with a new hope, New Easter, new promise of joy. He's the reason for the happy words, New Easter, new promise of joy. The Savior is the light of the world, New Easter, new hope in the dark. Now the darkness of this world has gone, New Easter, now we have the Son. He's the blessing and
